

PRIVACY NOTICE

Last revised: 07 October 2021

Mariana Mining Limited (hereinafter - "Company", "we", "us", "our") is the data controller for the purpose of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (hereinafter – "GDPR") and the BVI Data Protection Act, 2021. This Privacy Notice together with our Terms of Use (<https://www.marianamining.com/>) sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us for the purposes of provision of our services to you through our website and/or other applicable software, including but not limited to: the Digital Securities Dashboard (hereinafter – the "Dashboard"). The website can be accessed via the following link: <https://www.marianamining.com/> (hereinafter – the "Website").

Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it. By visiting our Website, you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this Privacy Notice.

We take the protection of our user's ("user/you/your") personal data very seriously and strictly comply with applicable data protection laws and regulations. In this Privacy Notice below we provide you with an overview of what data we collect for what purpose and how we ensure the protection of such data.

1. Purpose and Legal Basis of Processing Data; Legitimate Interests

1.1. Legal basis for collection and processing of your personal data

Applicable legal provisions are in particular those of the regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council of 27 April 2016, repealing the directive 95/46/EC, on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of Personal Data, on the free movement of such data ("General Data Protection Regulation", GDPR). We will only collect, use and/or pass on Personal Data if this is permitted by law or if the user consents to the data processing.

1.2. Your data will be used for the following purposes:

1. to implement this Privacy Notice and carry out the contractual relationships between you and us regarding our services available via the Website and/or our other software, including the DS Dashboard (Art. 6 (1) b. of GDPR);
2. to provide our services on the Website, to contact you in any matters regarding our services (also by means of emails and messaging) and to ensure the technical functionality of our services fulfillment of contractual or pre-contractual obligations (Art. 6 (1) b. of GDPR);
3. to prevent fraudulent behavior by any of our users (Art. 6 (1) b. and f. of GDPR);
4. to analyze your use of our services and improve our services (Art. 6 (1) b. and f. of GDPR);
5. with your express consent or instruction to carry out our business activities or send you newsletters and other advertising materials (Art. 6 Para. (1) a. of GDPR);
6. to follow our internal policies and protect our legitimate interests (Art. 6 (1) a., b. or f. GDPR or Art. 9 (2) a. of GDPR);
7. to save your blockchain data (e.g. your Ethereum wallet address) on the distributed ledger (on Art. 6 (1) f. of GDPR);
8. to comply with our legal obligations before third parties involved in the process of performance of our services (Art. 6 (1) c. GDPR);
9. to provide you with information about other goods and services we offer that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about;
10. to provide you, or permit selected third parties to provide you, with information about goods or services we feel may interest you. If you are an existing customer, we will only contact you by electronic means (e-mail) with information about goods and services similar to those which were the subject of a previous sale or negotiations of a sale to you. If you are a new customer, and where we permit selected third parties to use your data, we (or they) will contact you by electronic means only if you have consented to this. You have the right to request us not to process your data for the purposes of direct marketing.
11. to notify you about changes to our services;
12. to ensure that content from our Website is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your device;
13. for other purposes otherwise explained in this Privacy Notice or by any further communication from us; and
14. to comply with any applicable 'know your customer', anti-money laundering, or anti-terrorist financing laws and regulations in any jurisdiction in which we operate, including, without limitation, the British Virgin Islands.

2. Your Consent

We can collect and process your data with your consent. By clicking "I Agree" button on any of our resources or using our Website, or other of our services you confirm that you fully agree with this Privacy Notice and provide explicit and full consent to us for collection and processing of your personal data, including the sharing and disclosure of such personal data in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 7 below and the transmission of such personal data to a data processor outside of the British Virgin Islands.

3. Recipient(s) of Your Data

We, as well as our external service providers, receive your data for the purpose of provision of our services. We may need to share your information with our external service providers, affiliates and/or agents. We require that third party organizations who handle or obtain personal information as service providers acknowledge its confidentiality and undertake to respect an individual's right to privacy and comply with data protection principles including this Privacy Notice.

4. Information We May Collect From You

8. page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information (such as scrolling, clicks, and mouse-overs);
9. methods used to browse away from the page and any phone number used to call our customer service number.

4.6. Information we receive from other sources.

We may receive information about you if you use any of the other websites we operate or the other services we provide. We also work closely with third parties (including, for example, business partners, sub-contractors in technical, payment and delivery services, advertising networks, analytics providers, search information providers, credit reference agencies) and may receive information about you from them.

5. Your Rights

5.1. You have the right to:

1. withdraw your consent relating to the use of your data any time with effect for the future when such data processing is based on your consent*;
2. object to the processing of your personal data, if your personal data is processed on the basis of legitimate interests (based on Art. 6 (1) f. GDPR);
3. access the scope of data stored by us;
4. amend or rectify your data if such data is incorrect or outdated;
5. request the restriction of processing of your personal data;
6. request the erasure of your data;
7. receive information about the stored data (in a structured, current and machine-readable format) at any time;
8. be informed (subject to applicable statutory limitations) of whether your personal data is being processed by us or on our behalf and, if so, be informed of a description of:
 - (a) the personal data relating to you which is being or will be processed;
 - (b) the purposes for which the personal data is being or will be processed;
 - (c) the recipients or classes of recipients to whom personal data is or may be disclosed; and
 - (d) any information available to us as to the source of the data.

* Please note that if you become our user with a registered account as described in the Dashboard Terms of Use (<https://www.marianamining.com/>) and at any point will decide not to use our services and/or products we are legally obliged to nevertheless store your data related to you as our user for the purposes of maintenance of our user list.

 Please note, that your blockchain data stored on a distributed ledger is pseudonymized and in any case cannot be deleted by us due to the consequences for the integrity of the entire chain, specifically, due to deletion of such chain containing transactions validation history of other users.

5.2. To enforce your above mentioned rights, you may reach us through the email address included at the end of this document.

6. Period for Storing Your Data; Deletion of Your Data

The data that we collect from you will be stored and processed for the period of time necessary to provide you our services and will be deleted, subject to any retention requirements contained in any applicable law, after there will be no need in its storage and processing. Please note that when using our Website and/or any of our available services certain information and data about the user will be stored on the blockchain in pseudonymized form and may not be deleted.

7. Disclosure of Your Data

7.1. We may share your personal information with any member of our group, which means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and its subsidiaries as well as the above-mentioned third party services providers. We provide only the information they need to perform their specific services. They may only use your data for the exact purposes we specify in our contract with them. We work closely with them to ensure that your privacy is respected and protected at all times. If we stop using their services, any of your data held by them will either be deleted or rendered anonymous.

7.2. We may share your data with selected third parties including:

- business partners, suppliers and subcontractors for the performance of any contract we enter into with them to render you our services;
- advertisers and advertising networks that require the data to select and serve relevant adverts to you;
- analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimization of our Website;
- credit reference agencies for the purpose of assessing your credit score where this is a condition for us entering into any agreement with you regarding our services;
- in the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets;
- if we or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by us about our customers will be one of the transferred assets;
- if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply any agreements between you and us, or to protect our or our customer's rights, property, or safety. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organizations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

- we may, from time to time, expand, reduce or sell the Company and this may involve the transfer of divisions or the whole business to new owners. If this happens, your personal data will, where relevant, be transferred to the new owner or controlling party, under the terms of this Privacy Notice.

8. Use of the Blockchain

When using our services, including Dashboard, certain information and data about the user will be stored on the blockchain in pseudonymized form and may not be deleted because it is not possible without deleting the entire chain.

Such data stored on the blockchain will only be in pseudonymized form, including address (public key) of the user of the relevant services, a flag that the user is verified, a flag stating that the user is a sophisticated investor, a flag that the user has verified their bank account.

In this event and if such data is considered to be a Personal Data, the data processing by us is subject to Art. 6 (1) f. of GDPR based on our legitimate interest in using and providing this technology for our services in a functioning way.

9. Sharing Your Data With Authorities

We will only do this in very specific circumstances, for example:

- for fraud management, we may share information about fraudulent or potentially fraudulent activity in our premises or systems. This may include sharing data about individuals with law enforcement bodies.

- we may also be required to disclose your personal data to the police or other enforcement, regulatory or Government body, in your country of origin or elsewhere, upon a valid request to do so. These requests are assessed on a case-by-case basis and take the privacy of our customers into consideration.
